

NEWCASTLE NEWS

GREETINGS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Spring is here!

It's time to take the "Curb Appeal Test" for your home. Stand at your mailbox, take a good look at your property. What do you see? Are you pleased with the view from the curb? Yes? Congratulations! No? What would you change? Make a list of desired changes. Prioritize the list into two categories: First category should be a list of MUST DO ASAP (Clean the yard of leaves, straw, trash, etc.). The second category could be major or costly projects (replace overgrown hedges/bushes with new attractive plants, refresh the lawn with new turf, etc.). Need help with new ideas? Contact our new Lawn and Gardening guys, Deacon Therin McCants (803) 261-0738 or Deacon James Parker (803) 754-8093.

Hats Off to our newsletter editor and block captains.

They work together like hands and gloves.

Dr. Anthony Mack does a marvelous job creating an attractive, news worthy monthly newsletter.

The job would be incomplete without our block captains delivering the newsletters. The community and I truly appreciate your dedication and willingness to get our newsletters out in a timely manner.

We Salute You!

A Little Humor

Me: I wanted to start growing my own food but I couldn't find any bacon seeds.

April 1st is the beginning of our 100% Paid-Up Block Friendly Competition. If you have not paid your $30 membership dues, please do so today. Make your block a winner for 2022. Thank you.

Continue to be observant. If you SEE something, SAY something. Continue to pray for a fence of protection around our neighborhood and all that dwell within. Pray for our bereaved families, sick, shut-in, care takers, the elderly and children. Pray for me as I continue to pray for you.

*Love,
Mary McCants, NCCI President*
