FROM PRESIDENT'S DESK

Greetings Neighbors,

Welcome to April 2024! Spring brings new beginnings and much work to do in our yards since the Fall! I enjoy this time of year and look forward to everything it holds. I am grateful for the past seasons and begin the new seasons work anew. Please join me in sprucing up your properties, airing out your homes, and letting the season take hold.

Thank you for your vote of confidence and I look forward to serving you for another year as your President. All officers were reelected with the exception of the Recording Secretary who did not run this year. I would like to personally thank Ms. Nora Smith for her service.

Remember to join us every fourth Thursday of the month at our local community center on Shakespeare Rd. to discuss our community.

*Thank you for your Support,
Cynthia D. H. Privetté,
NCCI President*

Announcements: RCNC

The Office on Aging has received a million dollar grant to reimburse citizens over 60 years of age for their medical copays, dental work, wheel chair ramps etc. More information given out at the NCCI Community Meeting.

PICCOLO SPOLETO Arts Festival, SAT., JUNE 1. Art Forms & Theatre Concepts Inc. presents "CROWNS." This gospel musical is set to lift your spirits as it tells a moving celebratory story in which hats become a springboard for an exploration of Black history and identity as seen through the eyes of a young Black woman who has come down south to stay with her aunt after her brother is killed in Brooklyn. The production shows that hats tell tales concerning everything from the etiquette of hats to their historical and contemporary social functioning. There is a hat for every occasion, from flirting to churchgoing to funerals to baptisms, and the tradition of hats is traced back to African rituals and slavery to the New Testament and current fashion. $120 per person, in advance, before or by Sat., April 27. Includes ticket to performance.
