

President's Deacon James B. Rhett

Deacon James B. Rhett, heartfelt congratulations on your well-deserved presidency at Newcastle Concerned Citizens, Inc.! Your unwavering commitment to our community throughout the years, combined with your deep involvement in various committee initiatives, has uniquely equipped you for this significant leadership role. Your accomplishments stand as a testament to your dedication and the successful pursuit of ambitious goals. As we look forward to 2025, we are filled with enthusiasm regarding your vision and leadership for the future of Newcastle Concerned Citizens, Inc., and we anticipate witnessing the ongoing successes that will emerge from your stewardship in "the wonderful neighborhood estled in the northeast of Columbia."

Your presidency not only marks a new chapter for Newcastle Concerned Citizens, Inc., but it also represents a critical turning point for the organization. Building on the rich legacy of service and community engagement that you have fostered; we encourage you to lead with steadfast determination and an unwavering sense of purpose. May you draw upon our history and bylaws as you guide us forward, inspired by the revitalized spirit of Newcastle, to place the well-being of our residents at the forefront of your agenda.

We hope you will champion the establishment of efficient and fair dispute-resolution processes, ensuring that all concerns are addressed swiftly and equitably. Your leadership is essential in cultivating a community that is not only safer but also more compassionate and united true embodiment of our guiding motto: "Neighbors Working Together to Improve the Quality of Life in Our Neighborhood."
